

Celebration Service
In Loving Memory of
Mrs. Irene Olson

Scripture of Assurance - Bible Teacher Bernie Dueck

Welcome Poem - Written by Irene Olson

Congregational Song - Led by Hartley Kern

Obituary Tributes - sons Keith and Brian

Hymn Sing Group - Hartley Kern

Tributes - grandchildren Shelly, Ken and Chris

Solo - Hartley Kern

Devotional - Bernie Dueck

Congregational Song - Hartley Kern

Closing

I hope there'll be no sadness
When I am called away.
Across the mighty Chasm
Where we all must go some day.

I've had a bit of living
This life of joy and pain
I'm ready any time to go
And meet my God again.

Our lives are ruled by destiny
To match His mighty plan.
And if we live to please Him
We have done the best we can.

The end of life should not be sad
We need not fear at all
The prospect of eternity
To meet our Master's call.

So when I go to meet my God
I hope you'll simply say
She's gone to peace and rest at last
I'd like it best that way.

So let there be no weeping please
Thank God there'll always be
A home on high, a resting place
For weary souls like me.

By Irene Olson